

University of Louisville Faculty Speak About Critical Thinking QEP

In a video titled Faculty Speak About i2a, University of Louisville educators discuss the impact that the university's Quality Enhancement Plan has had on their instruction. The plan is titled Ideas 2 Action (i2a for short), and it places a heavy emphasis on helping students develop their critical thinking skills through usage of the Paul-Elder Framework for Critical Thinking.

As of July, 2021, the video is hosted at the following URL:
